

Red Lodge Music
festival

Honor String Ensemble competition

Competition is open to...

HIGH SCHOOL VIOLIN, VIOLA, CELLO, BASS & PIANO STUDENTS (who will be completing 9th, 10th, 11th, or 12th grade this year).

- » Audition submission must be postmarked or emailed by February 27th, 2023.
- » To enter, please submit the following:
 - Résumé
 - Complete registration at www.rlmf.org or by mail using form from brochure.
 - $50.00 non-refundable registration fee. Fee may be paid online or by mail.
 - Video Audition: Prepare two contrasting pieces that best represent your technical and musical ability, 10 minutes maximum. Upload your video as unlisted to YouTube, then share it with julie@rlmf.org.
 - Letter from string teacher confirming student's readiness for this experience.
 - Send the above to:
Julie Blakeslee
RLMF Ensembles Director
2410 Hoover Ave.
Billings, MT 59102
- » Winners will be notified by March 31 and music delivered in early April.

- » Winners receive:
 - Special placement in an advanced student/faculty string ensemble.
 - Daily intensive string ensemble rehearsals with coaching by faculty members.
 - Performance with faculty on Saturday's faculty recital, as well as a student-only performance on Friday's student recital.
 - A private lesson with a faculty member during camp.
 - Full tuition scholarship, provided by the Sidney E. Frank Foundation.
- » Winners will be chosen by performers/teachers not directly involved with the festival.
- » Literature will be selected by faculty after auditions are complete and sent to winners for advance study.
- » Winners will audition live for orchestra placement the first Saturday of camp, preparing audition materials posted at www.rlmf.org as usual.

www.rlmf.org

Save the date
Next Camp - June 5-11, 2023