Conductors

Peter Haberman serves as the director of bands and professor of music at Concordia College where he conducts The Concordia Band. He also leads the Echo Band, works with student conductors, teaches music education courses, and coordinates the comprehensive band program. Prior to his appointment at Concordia, Haberman held similar positions as director of bands at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and Bucknell University. Haberman maintains an active schedule as a conductor, guest conductor, and clinician, having worked in more than 10 states and on five continents. His ensembles have performed at both national and international conferences and music festivals. He also has served as music director for many community ensembles including the Chippewa Valley Youth Symphony. Prior to his college career, Haberman spent several years teaching at the Mercer Island School District in Washington and the Maple Lake School District in Minnesota. He was honored to be the recipient of the Educator of the Year Award and the Principal's Award for Outstanding Teaching at Mercer Island, and the Maple Lake Employee of the Year Award. Haberman is an active board member of the Minnesota Band Directors Association. He is also a member of the College Band Directors National Association, Minnesota Music Educators Association, National Association for Music Education, and World Association for Symphonic Bands and Ensembles. His honorary memberships include Phi Beta Mu, Phi Mu Alpha, and Pi Kappa Lambda. A native of Minnesota, he has earned degrees from Concordia College, the University of Montana, and the University of Minnesota where he completed a Doctorate of Music Arts in conducting. Peter lives in Moorhead, Minnesota, with his wife, Erika Tomten, and their daughter, Claire.

Dr. Luis Millán has been the Director of Orchestras at The University of Montana since 2003. In addition to conducting the orchestra, Dr. Millán leads the Classical Guitar studio and teaches Music Theory courses. Dr. Millán has served as Music Director of Butte Symphony Orchestra since 2009. Dr. Millán is also in demand as a guest conductor and clinician. Recent engagements include conducting All-State Orchestras in Oklahoma and Montana, and Orchestra Festivals throughout the Northwest. In addition to conducting and teaching, Dr. Millán remains active as a classical guitarist. Recent guitar performances have included concerts throughout the Northwest and recitals in Vienna, Austria; Shanghai, China; and Madrid and Cordoba, Spain. Before arriving in Montana, Dr. Millán directed the Orchestra Program at Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas; conducted youth orchestras in Topeka, Kansas, and Jackson and Saginaw, Michigan; served as Music Director of OPERA ONE and Opera Company of Mid-Michigan, Lansing, Michigan; and taught at Michigan State University's Community Music School and Flint Institute of Music, Flint, Michigan. Dr. Millán holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music from St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota (1991) and Master of Music and Doctorate of Musical Arts degrees in Orchestral Conducting from Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan (1993, 1997).

The Red Lodge Music Festival Endowment

Grew

PASSION, our Red Lodge Music Festival Endowment, continues to grow. Just as passion and hard work fuel the success for the music festival, so do your financial gifts to the endowment. We are now seeing financial fruits from your giving, even after these few short years. Whether a monetary gift or a more extensive plan from an estate, we thank you for your donations. Music changes lives - your continued support of this endeavor is greatly appreciated. All of our endowment donors can be found on our website and also in this season's faculty concert playbill.
